

HAVE A PROBLEM AT WORK?

The Southern Maine Workers' Center has two great resources to help!

WORKER SUPPORT HOTLINE (207) 888-1010

- Do you need information about your rights at work?
- Interested in organizing your workplace?
- Questions about unemployment?

Call and leave a message.
A volunteer will call you back.

VIRTUAL WORKERS' RIGHTS LEGAL CLINIC

- Do you need to speak to a lawyer about a problem at work?
- Do you feel like you've been unfairly terminated?

Free online consultations with an attorney are available on Thursday nights from 5-7pm.

Call the Worker Support Hotline to make an appointment: (207-888-1010)

Interpretation available.

The Workers Rights Legal Clinic is a joint Project of the Southern Maine Workers' Center and Volunteer Lawyers Project.

The Worker Support hotline cannot provide legal advice or services, but can provide information about worker rights and resources available to workers. If you need legal advice or services, call for an appointment at the Workers' Rights Legal Clinic or contact a lawyer directly.
